

FRESHMEN WERE VICTORIOUS OVER SOPHOMORES IN ANNUAL TRACK MEET BY FIVE POINTS

First Year Makes Score of Sixty-nine to Seniors' Sixty-four—Result in Doubt Until Last Events—Keen Rivalry—Several Prospects for Track Team—Newcomers Also Win Push-ball Contest.

In one of the bitterest class-meets in McGill history, the Freshmen track athletes last Saturday morning defeated their Sophomore rivals when they amassed sixty-nine points to the senior total of sixty-four. The result was in doubt until very near the end of the programme, despite the fact that the victors had a substantial lead half-way through the meeting, for a spirited but late, second-year rally diminished the newcomers' margin considerably. No records were broken, the condition of the track, soggy after an all night drizzle, making swift running difficult, though several creditable times were made.

Apart from the enthusiastic class rivalry, which made the Percival Molson Memorial Stadium ring continuously with applause on one side or the other, the main point of interest was centered in the search for material that might be an addition to Coach Van Wagner's track team, which will meet the representatives of Queen's, Toronto, and perhaps Western, in Montreal in less than two weeks. Blomer lately performing under the colours of the University of California, seemed to be the most promising find of the day, though Mackay and Thompson also did well, each having won two firsts.

At the conclusion of the track meet, the annual push-ball contest between the Freshmen and Sophomores took place, resulting in a first year victory in six and a half minutes. In this the seniors fought as valiantly as had their track brethren earlier in the day, but outnumbered by more than two to one, they never seemed in danger of threatening the first year line.

At ten o'clock about twenty Sophomore track champions and perhaps forty Freshmen took the field in the chief clash of the year. The first event on the programme was the Discus, which the second year Amaron, a track athlete of experience who this year returned to McGill after a season's absence, won from the Freshman Taylor. In the pole-vault, Consiglio, who jumped for McGill at Kingston last year, was conceded to win, but was forced to the limit to move out Blomer. Blomer cleared ten feet three before retiring, in order to reserve his strength for other events. The winner went over ten feet nine before giving up, as the pit was needed for the broad jump. As neither of these men had fallen when the contest had ended, it will remain for the results of the College meet to decide definitely the better man.

In the high hurdles, Mackay won handsily although he has had very little experience in this division. A curious feature of the hundred was the fact that two heels and the Unals were all won in eleven feet. In the half mile Diplock, a second-year man, led the way until the home stretch, when Robinson and Palmer passed him. In the high jump there was the greatest competition, two Sophomores vying for first place, and two Freshmen dividing second honours.

The shot-put saw the positions of the first two men in the discus reversed. Taylor beating the veteran Amaron. Irvine, who won three points in the high hurdles for his class, came through with five more in the 220 yards dash, nosing out Campbell in the last few yards. Consiglio, with first in the pole vault and high jump, was not content until he had annexed the honours in the broad jump as well. Thompson, late of the R. M. C., broke the tape first in both the mile and three mile, but his time was not especially fast in either event.

Urquhart defeated Morton, who had already placed in three numbers, in the javelin, while Smith, who won last year, came third, despite the handicap of an injured shoulder. In the 220 yards low hurdles, Blomer was leading Mackay by a comfortable margin, when he tripped over the second-to-last jump, and was forced as a result to take second place. The quarter was an interesting race, being anybody's property until Harris clinched victory in the last few yards. In the last event on the programme, the relay race, the Sophomores won by a very narrow margin. Four men ran 220 yards each, the winners being in the rear until the last few seconds.

The results of the meet:

C.O.T.C. WILL HOLD SMOKER TONIGHT

Members and Recruits Meet at 8.15 p.m. in Union

The members of the McGill Continuant C. O. T. C. are opening their season's activities this evening with a smoker to be held in the Union at 8 p.m.

This smoker will serve as an introduction between old and prospective members, and the former are earnestly requested to bring as many recruits as possible.

During the course of the evening, the "A" and "B" certificates will be presented to last season's successful candidates. The Angus Trophy and Jeffrey Burland Cup will also be presented, silver replicas being retained by the commanders of the winning units.

The Angus Trophy—for the most efficient Company was won by A. Co. Capt. Stephenson O. C.

The Jeffrey Burland, for the most efficient platoon was won by No. 1 platoon A. Co. Lieut. H. D. Pennell Commanding.

During the course of the evening the origin and the objects of the C. O. T. C. will be explained. The C. O. T. C. has been established at McGill for several years and has always had a high reputation for efficiency. Its war record was also particularly good.

The training is very beneficial and is to the advantage of every student to join as the military instruction and certificates attained now may be very useful in later years.

The standard of the unit has always been particularly high and it is hoped that new recruits will bear this in mind when deciding to join.

NOMINATIONS CLOSE TO-NIGHT AT SIX

For Cheer Leader and Vice President of Union

Tonight at 6 o'clock nominations will close for the post of Vice President of the Union and Cheer Leader. This only means one day in which to get all names in to the Secretary of the Union.

It is necessary to elect new men to these offices owing to the fact that Bob Fortune who was selected as Vice President of the Union last term and Jack Cameron, who became Cheer Leader at the same time, have both left College.

October 13th is the date set aside for the balloting and in the meantime Jack Duckworth who only lost to Cameron by one vote in the spring elections, has been asked to take charge and has consented to do so.

The nominations for both offices should be signed by 25 members of the Student's Society and handed in at the Union before 6 o'clock.

FRESHMAN RULE IS RECOMMENDED

Uniforms of Seniors May be Changed

In all probability the freshman rule, which bars freshmen from intercollegiate contest, will be adopted this year. The question was discussed at the Old Boys dinner at the University Club on Saturday night and the proposed measure found many supporters. Further consideration will be given it at the next meeting of the Intercollegiate Rugby Football Union.

It was felt at the meeting that a change from the striped uniform to the solid red with white numbers should be made. It was pointed out by the Old Boys that until 1915 the solid red canvas jacket had been worn with red and white striped stockings and it was claimed that the red jersey as worn by the Old Boys on Saturday makes the wearer look larger and more formidable. Ballot was taken on the advisability of reverting to the solid red and the motion was carried unanimously.

The dinner was a pleasant social function, bringing together students who had played on McGill teams of yesteryears. Coach Shaughnessy outlined the work of the present squad. He described the sleeping quarters and study room of the upper storey of the field house and stated that he is keeping in touch with the classroom work of the players.

Doctor Bazin's offer of his services in coaching the medical students of the team met with very warm acceptance. He will spend one evening a week at the field house. Others of the Graduates Society offered their services in assisting McGill to regain the championship. "Pep" Paisley, who captained and played for McGill before the war, is coming out to take charge of the backfield players leaving Coach Shaughnessy free to devote his time to the line.

The dinner was a pleasing end to the game and the confidence of the Old Boys created a feeling of optimism for the coming season. Doctor Argue was in the chair, the Old Boys were the guests and the officials present were Doctors Lamm and Bazin.

ROOTERS PRACTICE THIS AFTERNOON

Thundering Thousand in Ball Room of Union

Rooters' practice is called for this afternoon at 5 o'clock in the Union Ball Room. Freshmen in particular are urged to turn out and exercise their young lungs for the sake of Alma Mater. Jack Duckworth Pat McCabe and Bill Murdoch, probable candidates in the coming election of a cheerleader, will be out. Rusty Davis has promised to play the piano.

On Saturday the "Thousand" was not a thundering success, the cheering being somewhat disjointed. However practice this afternoon is expected to remedy that.

Responsibility for the Freshmen turning out lies with the capri de corps of 29 and the urging of the Sophomores whose duty it is to wean the young collegiate.

The next game when the rooters will be out to help the team will be that with R. M. C. on Saturday next.

DON'T FORGET Rooters' Practice at Five this afternoon in Union Ball room.

DREAMS OF THE ALCHEMISTS ARE BEING REALIZED

New Contributions to Spectrum Analysis Due to Dr. Butler and Dr. Foster

Physical Society Hear of New Etheral and Alchemic Discoveries

On Friday evening, October 2, the Physical Society listened to a characteristically lucid and diverting address by Dr. Eve, F. R. S., on the subject of recent advances in Physics.

Dr. Eve first touched upon two new contributions to the subject of spectrum analysis due to Dr. Butler and Dr. Foster, both of the Physics department. He then passed on to summarize some of the most interesting recent discoveries.

The artificial transmutations of elements, a process which has long been known to occur spontaneously among the radioactive elements seems, at last, after many centuries of unrequited labour, to have been achieved by certain German and Japanese physicists. They have turned quicksilver into gold.

The successful method has been to bombard the atoms of various substances with high-speed electrons and by this means to dislodge one of the particles which make up the atomic nucleus. When this happens we christen the atom with a new name. (Continued on Page 2)

McGILL PROFESSOR HAS RECORD CROWD

Speaks as High Authority to Literary Gathering

So gratified was the Baron De Hirsch Book Club with the book resume delivered by Honorable Justice Edouard Fabre Surveyl at their opening meeting in Baron De Hirsch Institute last evening that it was voted to make the McGill law professor an honorary member of the club.

The Honorable Justice Surveyl, although forced to refuse the proffer, must have felt well rewarded with the sincere thanks extended him and what chairman J. A. Lavinson, M. A. called the largest turnout the club has witnessed.

Louise Hemon's "Marie Chapdelaine" was professor Surveyl's subject for review. In his clear, quiet way, the speaker reviewed the life of the author and the substance of his book using certain extractions to illustrate the author's remarkable style.

The speaker in closing urged everyone to read the works of Louise Hemon who depicts life with close attention to details. Hemon, whose books are of the most popular in the bookshops, was internationally recognized even before his death. As a native of Canada he has received memorials of honour in both Montreal and Quebec.

CONVOCATION ON FOUNDER'S DAY

Sir Arthur Will Deliver
Address

Founder's Day Convocation will be combined with the autumn convocation proceedings to-morrow when Sir Arthur Currie will deliver an address, which will be of particular interest to freshmen, to the undergraduates.

The names of those who will receive degrees will be announced after this afternoon's meeting of Corporation.

Since it is understood that every freshman should attend all the first formal events of the college year, a full turn out of freshmen is expected. Sir Arthur himself expressed the hope that all students, and especially those now to the university, will be present. A whole holiday has been granted, in usual, to enable all undergraduates to join in the Founder's Day celebration.

GREAT PROGRESS OF FRENCH DEPARTMENT

Successful Summer School—
Increase in Continuing Students

That the French department ranks among the most progressive institutions in McGill University is shown by the fact that 1925 has been a record Summer School year, and also that the number of students continuing their studies in the French course in Arts has nearly doubled itself. A talented addition to the department has been effected in the person of Mde. Benoit, a graduate of the Paris University, with the degree of licentiate of letters.

The 1925 summer school was conducted on far more ambitious lines than ever before, and the large numbers who attended it expressed delight at their experience. 192 took the course of which over a hundred were women.

The students came from such distant places as Porto Rico, London, Florida, P. E. I. and Saskatchewan. The women students alone nearly equalled the complete attendance of 1924, which was 130. In addition nearly twenty Montreal business men took advantage of a special invitation and attended several lectures and some meals at the school. The students had a happy time with dances every Thursday night, ending up with a grand masquerade. Approximately seven hundred attended the annual soiree at which three one-act plays were given by the pupils.

About two thousand dollars was made by the school, clear of all expenses, and the yearly bonuses will probably help to start the building of a French house in connection with the university. This proposal is still in the air, but the chances are good for its materialization. Prof. Du Roure commented upon the scarcity of McGill students taking the Summer course.

Two new courses are added to the seasonal curriculum, one of which, a half-course, is of especial interest. It is taken by Professor DuRoure, and will deal with the political institutions of Modern France.

About two hundred and seventy-five Arts and Commerce freshmen are enrolled for the first year course, and a grand total of 450 are taking the courses, this being a hundred increase over last year. There are seventy enrolled in third and fourth year courses compared with forty last year; while twenty-five are taking honours in the last two years and twenty are intending to do the same in the sophomore year.

Notable Speakers Heard at Yesterday's Conference

The setting-up conference held yesterday at Pointe Claire, proved most successful to both R.V.C. and McGill members of the S.C.A.

Both groups had discussions among themselves and their leaders pointed out the ideals and problems of their local association, besides impressing upon them the need for unity and friendship in such a movement. Miss Rutherford and Miss Nichol gave the students some ideas of the Student Christian Movement in Canada itself and also in China, France and other countries. Among other reports were those made by delegates who had attended the recent Elgin House Conference.

In the evening the whole body met for supper at the church and later attended a special students' service done by the Christian Movement.

SENIOR SQUAD TOOK COUNT OF OLD BOYS; LOOSE GAME CLOSES WITH 12-1 SCORE

Third Quarter Showed Only Real Football—Manson and Cameron Complete Spectacular Seventy Yard Run—Two Touches and One Safety Run Up Score—Sophs Win Pushball Contest—"Flin" Flanagan Still Shows Old Pep—Gordon Was Best Ball Carrier on the Field

By Gridiron Gaze

By playing good football in the third quarter and making football in the other three, the McGill Seniors ran up a total of twelve points, while the Old Boys playing mediocre football in all four could score only one. Only in the third quarter did either team display anything which was the resemblance of football, the other three being rather punting duels between two and three thousand people present. The band and the thundering four hundred and fifty showed plenty of pep and shouted lustily all afternoon. The boys in the push balls in Section A seemed to be enjoying themselves too, for led by Bill Murdoch they went through several yards as loudly as those in the bleachers across the field. The push ball tournament at half time was enjoyed by the onlookers and participants alike and also drew the interest of the players, resting in the field house.

The third quarter as has been mentioned was the best of the four. The Seniors, returning from the rest enjoyed at half-time seemed to take a new lease of life and during the third period the ball was in their territory but twice. Joe Cameron had the crowd on its feet for the first time since they walked in when he ran from McGill 20 yard line up the field and passed to St. Germain on his own 20 yard line who returned to the Old Boys' thirty. Old Boys started off by tumbling and McGill had the ball on their 50 yard line. St. Germain made 15 yards on an end run. Hal blocked McGill's on side kick and Old Boys secured. Old Boys were made a present of fifteen yards when McGill was off-side. Flanagan kicked to St. Germain who returned to Flanagan. Altmann replaced St. Germain who retired with an injured thumb. Hanna kicked and one of the grey beads fumbled Hanna securing. Then really isn't much use in reporting the rest of this period as most of it was just straight kicking, tumbling and generally poor football.

The Old Boys contributed a few fumbles and McGill added a few more and a couple of offsides to make good measure. The best bit of football in the otherwise wretched quarter was the end run by Laing which netted the Old Boys some 25 yards. Near the end of the quarter by virtue of various tumbles and offsides, Old Boys were on McGill's 20 yard line and Flanagan kicked a rouge. A murmur of approval came from the crowd in the stands. The quarter ended with Old Boys 1, McGill 0. Decision: Old Boys' Round.

The second quarter was a repetition of the first although the tumbling began to disappear. Flanagan and Hanna continued merrily with their kicking duel with Hanna having a slight advantage. The ball however stayed in McGill territory most of the time and when Hanna did get it out Referee Morrison penalized McGill for violation of the three yard rule in kicking and the ball went twenty yards back again into McGill territory. Unlike the first quarter, there was not even one flashy play although the football was a bit better. Score at half time, Old Boys 1, McGill 0. Round 2 even.

Bill Murdoch rolled the giant push ball on the field at half time in preparation for the Freshman Soph struggle. About fifty freshmen gathered at the east goal posts and divested themselves of their coats. Some fifteen Sophs took their stand at the other end of the field. Frank Godine, the referee, offered the Sophs fifteen or so Freshies to even things up but this gift they flatly refused. However, the courageous Sophs were joined by many from the bleachers and showing superior tactics succeeded in going over for a touch in about seven minutes of play. The ball was set in motion again but then minutes ended without any scoring, leaving the Sophs victorious 1-0. Twice during the fracas the ball rolled into the hand and completely ruined their morale, not to say their ranks for the time being. Frank Godine and Bill Murdoch showed great bravery in refereeing the game as they were the target for many fists at all times. The spectators enjoyed the game thoroughly and showed more interest in it than at any time since their arrival.

McGill kicked off starting the third quarter and Flin returned. Manson made two good plunges. McGill lost the ball on a fumble and when Flin kicked Joe ran his kick back to the Old Boys' 10 yard line. It was a nice run on the part of the Artful Dodger, McGill tumbled again and Henry kicked out of danger. Manson made several yards on a buck, and Blair added more. Manson again made seven and Hanna went through two good gains. McGill was going.

to Manson who brought the ball to the Old Boys 20 yard line. It was a seventy yard run through the whole of the Old Boys team and was the best play of the afternoon. The line plunging in the third was one of the features of the game. Manson and Gordon carrying the ball seemed to be able to make yards practically at will. Mickles pulled off a pretty play when he called Manson back for a face buck and took the ball through himself for ten yards. Boncher and Gordon were the best on the defensive and accounted for a number of good tackles. For the Old Boys, Flanagan was the star of the game and did most of the kicking, being favored at times by Henry. Hal was the best on the line and blocked a couple of kicks well besides figuring in some neat tackling.

Henry kicked off for the Old Boys to St. Germain on his own 20 yard line who returned to the Old Boys' thirty. Old Boys started off by tumbling and McGill had the ball on their 50 yard line. St. Germain made 15 yards on an end run. Hal blocked McGill's on side kick and Old Boys secured. Old Boys were made a present of fifteen yards when McGill was off-side. NOMINATIONS CLOSE TO-DAY

Few students seem to realize that nominations for the offices of cheer leader and the vice-presidency of the Union House Committee close to-day at six. However, there is time enough left for the undergraduates to earnestly consider the qualifications of their various fellow-students, to decide upon which ones they believe most eligible for office, and see that these are properly nominated before it is too late.

Everyone knows what is expected of a cheer leader, and has had opportunities of seeing several students in action in this capacity. A good cheer leader should have vigour and enthusiasm and above all a personality which will hold and control the packed bleachers.

Since the Union so far this session has been run without the aid of a vice-president it is imperative that the man to fill the position be one of proved executive ability who will be willing to do some real work and relieve those who have been carrying on short-handed in the management of the Union.

All students are therefore asked to consider this matter immediately and see that men are nominated who will be able to fill capably their respective offices.

In such circumstances as the present there is altogether too much in evidence among undergraduates the spirit of "let George do it." Instead of making an endeavour to do something themselves. Students are too willing to sit back and wait for somebody else to make a move, then do a lot of complaining at the way things are run and the men that are running them.

The nomination of men for the present vacant offices has been left until the last moment. Another time it is hoped that students will display more vigour and a greater interest in undergraduate activity.

THAT LITTLE CREST OF GREEN

"I suppose I must put on that darn cap," was a statement heard uttered by a Freshman as he entered the campus.

This attitude is far from true McGill spirit. The little green headgear issued to yearlings has a full meaning and should be respected accordingly.

True, while some look well under their new attire, others look—or less intelligent, but that is of negative importance. Upon the Freshman, collectively as well as individually, rests the obligation to "carry on" the prestige of the university. As the skull-cap is worn by him so the future welfare of McGill is borne by him. Furthermore, the caps will give a feeling of unity, which will tend towards immediate and consequent strong class spirit.

Anyone may wear a straw hat, a derby, a felt hat, or ordinary cap but to a Freshman only comes the sensation and privilege of wearing that little crest of green.

Therefore, members of '29, wear your caps willingly with a smile. Pull together for the best class McGill will ever see.

DREAMS OF THE ALCHEMIST ARE BEING REALIZED

Because we are less interested in it as a personality than with the way it behaves, and the deportment of an atom is determined by the constitution of its nucleus, much as life depends upon the liver.

In connection with the theory of relativity astonishing results have lately come to light. For twenty years or more it has been accepted that the earth is like a ship heeled in the sea of ether (if we like to imagine there is such a thing). On his foundation Einstein's Theory of Relativity has been built. Recently however Dayton Miller of Mt. Wilson observatory has thrown overboard a particularly sensitive log which seems to give indications that the earth is steaming ahead through the ether at a speed of about twenty kilometres per second. McGill students are recommended to seize the earliest opportunity of purchasing a hot grid.

This is a really formidable difficulty for the Einstein theory. On the other hand it is well-known that every cloud has a silver lining, so it is not at all surprising to learn that Adams (also at Mt. Wilson) from measurements of the shift of the spectral lines of Sirius the Dog-star (due to the gravitational field of its gigantic satellite), has discovered a new and brilliant confirmation of Einstein's theory.

REMARKABLE TRIBUTE PAID McGill GRAD

minute than one usually finds even during an old home rally.

Alpena turned out Wednesday and tendered Dr. Duncan A. Cameron, champion baby doctor of the community, with some 2,700 youngsters to his professional credit, a testimonial of love that must have warmed his tender Canadian heart close to the bursting point. It was a magnificent expression of regard, spontaneous and unanimous, to one of the most lovable men Alpena has known in her three-quarters of a century of history.

The automobile, the garage and the purse are very fine gifts, but overshadowing them all is the fine sentiment that prompted the demonstration.

Life is a fine and full experience for Dr. Cameron and in the living of it he surely comes close to full adherence to the golden rule laid down by the Deity whom he frequently invokes as he earnestly advises his patients.

The doctor has been part and parcel of the life of Alpena for four decades and no more appropriate figure could have been selected on whom to center the emotions of Home-coming week as they were centered in the observance of Cameron Day. One of the beauties of the thing is that this expression is given while the doctor is here to enjoy it himself and with the prospect of many more years of life in which he may cherish the memory of it.

Dr. Cameron is loved by the people of his community because he has served, served nobly and unselfishly. Members of a profession with an immortal tradition of "service above self," he has gone that profession one better. He has worn himself out repeatedly in the service of his fellow men, even while he served knowing that from some of them he never would receive a cent of compensation. But the doctor never thought of money. The first interest of his in-

Surely you, as freshmen can take the advice of your upper classmen, and they will all tell you that the wisest thing for you to do, is to buy a meal ticket NOW. (and incidentally save 10%)

Perhaps you will ask—where are we going to sit? There is ample seating capacity for everyone. If the cafeteria appears to be too crowded, there are more seats in the Grill—which is directly across the hall.

LOOSE GAME AS FOOTBALL SQUAD BEAT OLD BOYS

TORONTO SENIORS BEAT GRADUATES

Score 3-1 in Old Boys' Rugby Game

Toronto, Ont., Oct. 5. (Special to McGill Daily)—With the veteran Warren Snyder off their line-up, the Toronto Varsity senior intercollegiate football team beat a squad representing the Old Boys in an annual fixture here this afternoon. The final score was 3-1. Snyder's name appeared on the list of substitutes for the Old Boys. Pequegnat, a member of last year's senior team played part of the game for the Old Boys relieving Holmes during the second quarter. The weather conditions are ideal though the field is somewhat soft. It is estimated that six thousand people were in the stand.

Loose play and frequent fumbling marked the first quarter. Frank Sullivan did the kicking for the Old Boys and he was as good as both Trimble and Creighton for Varsity. The crowd seemed surprised at the graduates' ability to hold the intercollegiate down to a tie, during this period. Varsity 0, Old Boys 0.

Pequegnat who went in for Holmes was forced to rouse when an attempted from the twenty-five by Trimble went wide. The play was beginning to move up to Varsity's half, but Creighton carried the ball back with a neat thirty yard run. Trimble kicked to the dead line for a safety. Varsity 3, Old Boys 0.

Sullivan for the Old Boys Kicked from 40 yards to Trimble who was forced to rouse. McGilbons was injured and taken off the field. A loose play forced the Old Boys to assume defensive tactics and three-quarter time ended with the score, Varsity 3, Old Boys 1.

The last quarter contributed the best football of the afternoon. The Varsity seniors came to life. They kicked to the deadline for what looked like a sure rouse, but Pequegnat ran it out from behind while the rest of the squad looked on and dreamed. Final Score Varsity 3, Old Boys 1.

Yale and Harvard

WIN AT FOOTBALL

Princeton, Columbia, Cornell and Syracuse Also Victors

While Yale was beating Middlebury to the tune of 55-0, Harvard was taking the count of Rensselaer by 18-6 in scheduled intercollegiate rugby games played in the United States Saturday. The results of all the games played follow:

The three yard line, because of an off-side and Flanagan kicked out of danger to nearly centrefield. The McGill backs pulled off an end run that netted thirty yards. The affair was beginning to look more like a football game. Manson went through for yards on the first down. From ten yards out, Gordon went over for a touch on two backs. It was not converted. Old Boys kicked off and Cameron taking the catch on his own 20 yard line ran it back some forty yards and passed to Manson who completed the run for seventy yards. It was the best piece of work all afternoon. Jerry Altman, who had been playing a steady game made 10 yards on an end run. Ney Gordon added seven more on a buck, and Hanna went over for the second touch. It was not converted. The quarter ended with McGill 10, Old Boys 1. Round 3 McGill.

The fourth quarter started with McGill in possession on their own 30 yard line. Gordon went through again for 10 yards. Gordon was making some fine plunges and was the best ball carrier on the team. Gordon and Cameron figured in an end run that netted 15 yards. Manson made 15 yards by a clever bit of running around the long end. Mickles called Manson on the next and faked a nice buck carrying the ball himself to seven yards. Old Boys' 35 yard line. Hanna kicked on the next down and the gradybacks were forced to a safety touch. There was very little line plunging induced from then on.

A. C. Abbott vs. Dew MacKay.
Stan. Perry vs. F. C. Holt.
J. Gordon vs. D. S. Neel.
C. E. Pacaud vs. R. N. Stewart.
Of the above players J. Wright, Charlie W. Leslie, Stanley Perry, A. C. Abbot, G. Wayland, Jack Frith, R. Desbarats and John Gordon were seeded in the order named and the remainder were arranged by draw from hat.

Competition this year for tennis honours will be as keen as ever and the college has a splendid chance of winning for the seventh consecutive year the Intercollegiate title. Willard Crocker has left and the ace of former years will be greatly missed. It is almost a certainty that Leslie, Wright and Perry will have places on the McGill team but who will make up the remainder of the six is still a question, and a matter of doubt. The players who have been seeded are all likely winners and several new men have shown brilliant play in the last week's practice. Of these Pacaud is a possibility.

Weather permitting finals for the Vaughan Cup and the Intercollegiate eliminations will be played on Friday afternoon at 2.30 o'clock, and if not then, on Saturday morning at 11 o'clock. The team will then be chosen and will journey to Kingston for Intercollegiate finals, taking place on the 16 to 17th inclusive. The matches will be played on the Queens University courts and the Royal Military College will entertain.

Participating teams are Queens University, Toronto University, Royal Military College, University of Montreal, Osgoode Hall and McGill. Teams will be of six men—four playing singles matches and two playing doubles.

McGill loses Tom Brown from last year's team. Brown has gone to Queens but will not be able to play this year. He is returning to McGill the following year and will be available.

Toronto are fortunate in having several of their last years players again. Nunn and Ham are expected to be on the team and it is very likely that Brian Doherty and Worsely will play. The R. M. C. will probably use Donald Gunn. The University still have Marcelle Rainville of Montreal an old court favorite who has shown his mettle in many a battle. Osgoode Hall have Jack Thompson, runner up in the New Brunswick senior championships two years ago.

Further draws will, in the local eliminations will be announced from day to day. Competitors are asked to aid the management as much as possible by adhering strictly to the scheduled hours, for due to the record entry list of sixty-two players it will be necessary to have the first round completed by this evening.

Players are reminded of the Physical examination requirements. The entry fee of fifty cents is not already

REVIEW OF ROWING CLUB'S ACTIVITIES

The summer of 1925 has been the starting point of the activities of the McGill Rowing Club which has had quite a successful season. The clubhouse is very conveniently situated at Lakeside and can accommodate about twelve men. The club at present has a working boat and a four-oared shell and by next summer will probably have an eight.

Owing to the difficulty of getting our last spring there were no workouts on the water till June 8th. On July 9th two crews were entered in the Novice Four at the B. R. A. Regatta at Brockville. There were five entries and one of McGill's crews came third. The other McGill crew came fifth. Honorary Coach Molmans was quite satisfied with the results.

The club was very fortunate in securing the services of Mr. Urban Molmans as Honorary Coach. For several years Mr. Molmans represented Belgium and won over one hundred first prizes in Europe. He has been working very hard during the last winter and summer to form good crews for McGill.

During the winter training is carried on every day from 3 p.m. to 6 p.m. on machines in the attic of the Union. The Athletic Board has up to the present granted Physical attendance for this training. Last year many men made use of this excellent opportunity to keep themselves fit.

In view of having more members this year arrangements are being made to put two more machines in the attic of the Union and very shortly training will commence.

Application for membership should be made to one of the executive.

PROVIDE DEMOCRACY WITH ITS LEADERS

Universities must produce an intellectual elite to provide Democracy with what it needs—leaders. "said Sir Robert Falconer in his opening address of the term to the undergraduates of Toronto. It was well, he stated, to remember the saying of Plato, "Knowledge is an activity of the soul." An institution which merely remembers is out of the running—there must always be advance.

Sir Robert, who had recently returned from overseas, dwelt particularly on a consideration of the Scottish universities, speaking of the earnest desire for learning which pervades them—the desire that creates truly great universities. Over the universities of Scotland there brooded the spirit of philosophy—the endeavour to comprehend facts, to get something out of them, and to fit them into their places in the scheme of things. "The Gods," said the Greeks, "sell their blessings in return for toil."

They sat together on the sofa and admired the new engagement ring. She looked at the diamond set and whispered:

"My, John, isn't it clear?"

"Only two more payments, dear," he replied.

"That was a most touching scene I just witnessed."

"Where were you?"

"Waiting a class in typewriting.—Ex"

A knowledge of chemistry quickly teaches girls the value of a good pure soap like Baby's Own Soap. They know why its freedom from excess of alkali makes it so precious for delicate skins, which are easily affected by strong soaps. CHORAL SOCIETY TO GIVE TWO CONCERTS

The McGill Choral Society, organized last year and numbering among its members all men and women in the university who are interested in choral work, will hold its first practice of the present term next Thursday, October 8, at 8 p.m. in the Conservatorium of Music.

The society is under the direction of Mr. Walter Clapperton who directed the first annual concert last year of which the following comment was made in the local press: "McGill has every reason to feel proud of her Choral Society. Under the baton of Mr. Walter Clapperton with Miss Clara Lichenstein at the piano, the choir, not a very large one but well balanced, was heard to advantage in choruses and part songs opening the first part of their programme with 'Hail Alma Mater'. But it was the second part of the programme devoted to selections from 'Faust' in which the full strength of the choir was heard and that drew admiration for the splendid singing of the assistant soloists."

This year it is the intention of the society to give two concerts, one during the fall term and another later on in the year.

The Editor,
McGill Daily.
Dear Sir: Two years ago I had occasion to visit Union College in Schenectady. I was there only two days but the remarkable part of it all was that I felt like a student at Union several years. Everyone seemed to know me and I seemed to know everyone. As I wandered about the campus, which I always remember as a congenial one, freshmen said "hello" to me, upperclassmen saluted me, and the professors greeted me. The freshmen especially were the first to shout out their greetings. I was not on the campus grounds longer than one hour when I began saying hello to everyone, greeting fellow students with a smile. I was astounded at myself but all the more delighted with the spirit of the place.

On inquiry I learned that the reason for it all was a Freshman Rule. All freshmen are required to say hello to fellow students on the campus.

Freshmen are required to say hello. Upperclassmen say hello because it is part of them and the spirit at Union. It is a wonderful spirit. It is my purpose in writing this letter to present this idea to students at McGill, and that the attention of the Students' Council will be attracted to this suggestion and may incorporate it in the Freshman Rules.

Very truly yours,
I. J. WOLF, Med. '28.

GREETINGS ARE EXCHANGED WITH U. DE MONTREAL

The following letters, one from B. C. MacLean to the President of the Students' Council of University of Montreal, and the other the reply by Mr. Proulx, evidence the friendly relations existing between the two schools.

September 24, 1925.

Mr. C. Proulx,
President,
Students' Council of University of Montreal,
Maison des Etudiants,
351 Sherbrooke Street, West,
Montreal, P. Q.

Dear Mr. Proulx:
Permit me on behalf of the Students' Council of McGill University to extend to your Council and through the "Quartier Latin" to the students of the University of Montreal our sincere greetings and best wishes for a successful and prosperous year.

The spirit of good comradeship and friendly rivalry which has existed between the Students of the University of Montreal and McGill University during recent years has been the subject of general comment and we are not only happy in this present relationship, but truly hope that it will continue for many years to come.

Cordially yours,
(Signed) Basil C. MacLean,
President.

Montreal, October 1, 1925.

Mr. Basil C. MacLean, President,
Students' Council of McGill University,
328 Sherbrooke St. West,
City.

Dear Mr. MacLean:
I acknowledge receipt of your amiable letter of September 24th, and feel most honored in thanking you, on behalf of the "Association Generale des Etudiants" of Montreal University, for your thoughtful wishes.

There can be no better proof of good comradeship and emulation than the fact of our McGill friends writing such a letter, for which initiative we are happy to extend to them all our most hearty congratulations.

The letter, which was read at our first general meeting, on September 25th, moved enthusiastic applause through all the audience.

Let us close with one word: "Hail Old McGill! Let's shake hands and stick together!"

Cordially yours,
(Signed) C. Proulx,
President.

Dr. Jackson

Students and graduates in the Faculty of Medicine and in the colleges in all faculties will learn with sincere regret of the death of Dr. F. Slater Jackson, Assistant Professor of Histology, which occurred on Saturday night.

Dr. Jackson was a graduate in Medicine of McGill and did post-graduate work in Dublin. All his life he was a keen biologist, for while still a second year student he was appointed student demonstrator in Zoology, and since then with the exception of the time he spent abroad, he has been on the staff of various biological departments at McGill. He was also a physician at the Montreal General Hospital.

He was successful and popular as a teacher, his combination of scientific and clinical knowledge giving him a breadth of outlook of which his students reaped the advantage. His lectures were enlivened by flashes of delightful humour. He had particular encouragement for the students who gave promise of more than ordinary ability, and those who had the privilege of doing special work under his guidance soon discovered what a mastery he possessed of the technique of microscopy.

Dr. Jackson was widely travelled, having engaged in medical and scientific work in England, India and South America. In 1907 he was entomologist to the expedition sent to West Africa by the School of Tropical Medicine of the University of Liverpool.

He spent a number of summers carrying out investigations at the Atlantic Biological Station at St. Andrews, N. B., of which he was at one time director. He was the author of numerous papers upon biological subjects, his last complete work being an investigation of the lalets of Langerhans in fishes, which in conjunction with certain work done by Professor Meleard of Toronto furnished important evidence that these lalets are indeed the source of insulin.

Although it was plain from his lectures that he was a man of all round scholarship, it is probable that not many of his students really knew how profound was his knowledge of the classics and of Horace in particular. He was fond of music especially of instrumental music, and he derived a great deal of happiness from his 'cello. In music as in literature, his tastes were strictly classical.

The passing of one who held the torch of scholarship so high is a heavy loss to McGill.
